DAILY NEWS.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1879.

THAT was an eloquent tribute from a warm Irish heart, Mr. Frye, of Maine, paid the deceased Georgian Representative, Mr. Hartridge, in the House Thursday.

In his scholarly oration over the late Mr. Hartridge, of Georgia, Mr. Cox, of New York, made the inexcusable blunder of crediting Nathaniel Macon to Georgia.

OUR ROWAN correspondent is vexed. At the bottom of a very complimentary letter to the NEWS he adds: "tell the Reform Legislature to do something p. d. q. or quit."

IT is now gravely suspected that the boarding house keepers in Washington, are at the bottom of the extra session agitation. Any way it seems that the Democratic caucus was a big joke.

Did ever a "Reform Legislature" need a leader worse?

Never.

What, never?

Well, hardly ever.

FAGG, the irate Asheville postmaster, is an "ornary cuss." He is trying to get up a "benefit" in Washington as the "original persecuted Union man of North Carolina."

ANOTHER agonizing report about the tobacco tax comes from Washington. This time we learn that somebody said that Mr. Tucker said that a Senator said that — how is it any way.

SOME FELLOW that is doubtless dead-beating one of the numerous candidates for Speaker, out of drinks and lunch writes to assure us that "Randall will certainly be defeated if the opposition can be concentrated on a Southern or Western man." Perhaps.

IMMEDIATELY after the adjournment of the Legislature we shall open the columns of the NEWS to the people for a free discussion of State and national politics. In that way we shall get at public sentiment. Too great caution cannot be observed by the men that "wrote the wires."

NORTH CAROLINA looks like a "little strip of land" indeed in the River and Harbor Bill, as reported by the House Committee: North Landing River $25,000; Cape Fear river $25,000; Neuse river $15,000; French Broad river $5,000. But wait till Ransom makes a ten strike at it in the Senate.

FAGG, the decapitated Asheville postmaster and "original persecuted Union man" says he will "wake up somebody that has been resting easy under the fatal delusion that the statute of limitations covered their d—rascalities." Fagg wants an extra session. He thinks "original persecuted union" men will be in favor with the Democratic Senate.

"Who is Carter Harrison?" asks a correspondent. The ignorance of some people is amazing. Who is Carter Harrison? Why, he is Carter Harrison. See Congressional record, vol. 104 page 7 for further particulars. It is C. H.'s wind-wots that so highly recommends his nomination. It will take a tough-winded dog to make the race. With Clingman as second man it may be the old story of the tail wagging the dog, but what's the difference.

UNDER the present apportionment sixty-six members, it is estimated, will be added to the House of Representatives as the result of the next census. Of these, eleven are assigned to the Eastern and Middle States, forty to the Western States and fifteen to the Southern States. The largest proportionate increase is found in the case of Kansas, which jumps from a representation of three to one of seven. California increases from four to seven, and Texas sends ten instead of six. New York adds five to her number. Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Missouri, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin send four additional members in each case and the representations of Indiana and Minnesota are augmented by two each. On the supposition that the apportionment is correct, the electoral vote in 1884 will be divided sectionally as follows: Eastern and Middle States, 124; Western States, 173; Southern States, 138.

The Radical Programme.
Thursday's Washington Post prints the following:
"The Radical programme, fully resolved upon and completely calculated, is this: To carry all four of the California districts by the aid of the corruption fund and the election law; to buy or bribe with chairmanships and Executive patronage all the Independents, Nationals and Greenbackers elected to the next House; and, finally, to indict, convict and imprison, under the election law, seven Democratic members-elect. The men selected for this treatment are King, of Louisiana, and Hull, of Florida, who are already under indictment; Elam, of Louisiana; Shelley, of Alabama; Conner, of South Carolina; Calhoun, of Mississippi, and one other, to be chosen out of three or four names now under consideration by the chief prefect of National police, under our present imperial form of government, Devens!"

This is all we have to offer. We hope the Democrats in the House will fully consider what they are doing, and what the consequences will be, before they act. And we repeat that if the Congress passes the appropriation bills saving the election law un-repealed, the speaker and committee chairman of the next House will not be Dem crats."

The Post is badly scared or something. Maybe the latter.

Our Fish Interests.

From the time of the first settlement on Roanoke the waters of North Carolina have ever been renowned for the number and delicacy of their fish. Until within the past few years the catching, one might say the destruction of these, proceeded without any attempt being made to replace the loss by propagation. In consequence the streams inland were almost depopulated of their treasures, and the few fish left were of inferior species, a sad change from the time when every stream teemed with the finest game fish. In 1835 the catch of shad in the Potomac was 22,500,000, and of herring 75,000,000. A sad contrast is presented to these figures by those of to-day. It may be well to add that in addition to the nets which capture the fish there are on many of the streams dams of such height that upward-swimming fish are stopped and thus prevented from getting to their spawning grounds. Thus one of the greatest sources of wealth and comfort is being taken away in the loss of those fish which by their fineness of flavor are everywhere sought after.

Northern Intimidation.
The New York World has been working up the November elections in Massachusetts and Rhode Island. That paper has collected and offers positive proof that in Massachusetts factory hands and others in the employment of Republicans were given to understand that if they voted "against the interests of their employers" they would have to look for employment elsewhere; that tickets were gotten up of such shape and character, so marked that it could be known whether the employee voted them or not; clerks were stationed at the polls, who kept tallies of the names of the workingmen who voted and what ticket they voted.

In Rhode Island an ex-Governor of that State is offered as a witness. He says:

"A Republican capitalist who controls a large number of laborers controls their votes of course. The men can not afford to lose their situations at this time. He gives them to understand, through his superintendent or overseer, that he conscientiously believes that it is for their good and the welfare of the State that the Republican ticket should be elected, and that the personally desires that they vote that ticket. How many of them, do you suppose, will go contrary to these implied instructions?"

The next witness the World offers is the chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee. Doubtless his statement will be accepted as authoritative. He says:

"Managing elections in this State is a trade that can't be learned in a day. You see, we have here a respectable class of citizens, who believe that no man should vote unless he is a property owner. They are mostly Republicans. Many of them have strong religious prejudices. They conscientiously believe in the Republican party, and think it is right to insist that those who are dependent upon them should vote that ticket. I will go to the practice of law.

In May, 1861, he entered the military service of his State as Captain and Quartermaster of the 33rd Regiment North Carolina State Troops. In April, 1862, he was promoted to be Major and Quartermaster of General L. O. B. Branch's Brigade. In December, 1862, he was transferred to General Pender's Brigade, as its Adjutant General. In May, 1863, he became Adjutant General of Pender's Division, afterwards Wilcox's Division, in which capacity he remained until the surrender at Appomattox Court House.

In March, 1866, having in December

previously purchased an interest in the Wilmington Journal, he went to that city to live and there resided until elected Secretary of State in 1876. In 1872 he was a delegate to the National Democratic Convention, held in Baltimore. In 1876 he was the candidate of the Democratic party for Secretary of State, and made a most vigorous and thorough canvass of the entire State in the summer and autumn of that year. He received the highest vote cast for any candidate for a State office at that election.

This responsible position has been greatly filled by Maj. Engelhardt since

January 1st, 1877, and he brought to it a judgment and depth which made that department one of the most prominent in the State, and his management of its affairs was at all times conducted with a high regard for the interest and honor of his State. The deceased gentleman, in all life's relations, was worthy of the regard in which he was held, and the people of his State will join in regret at his death.

SO FAR AS THE NEWS IS CONCERNED

THE REMARKS OF MR. LEACH IN THE SENATE, WEDNESDAY ARE UNWARRANTED.

THE NEWS DOES NOT PUBLISH ANONYMOUS CORRESPONDENCE.

IT DOES NOT PERMIT IRRESPONSIBLE SCRIBBLERS TO ATTACK FALSELY PERSONS THROUGH ITS COLUMNS.

THE AUTHOR OF THE CORRESPONDENCE IN THE NEWS OF WHICH MR. LEACH COMPLAINS IS A RESPONSIBLE PARTY, AS ENQUIRY IN THE PREMISES BY THE AGGRAVED SENATOR WILL DEMONSTRATE.

THE GEOLOGICAL SURVEY.

THE SENATE ON FRIDAY REFUSED TO PASS THE HOUSE BILL ABOLISHING THE GEOLOGICAL SURVEY, BUT PASSED INSTEAD A BILL OF THE FOLLOWING PURPORT: THE GOVERNOR TO APPOINT FOR TWO YEARS A STATE GEOLOGIST, AND WITH THE ADVICE AND CONSENT OF THE SENATE; THE GOVERNOR AND BOARD OF AGRICULTURE TO HAVE POWER TO VACATE THE OFFICE AT ANY TIME.

THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND PAY ITS EXPENSES, NOT TO EXCEED $5,000 ANNUALLY, OUT OF THEIR REVENUES.

IT WOULD SEEM THAT IF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE ARE TO ASSUME THE SUPERVISION OF THE WORK AND RESPONSIBILITY,

AND TO PAY FOR IT, THEY OUGHT, IT SEEMS, TO HAVE THE APPROPRIATING POWER ALSO.

THERE IS A PALPABLE INCONGRUITY IN THE FEATURES OF THE BILL AS IT PASSED THE SENATE.

WOULD IT NOT BE BETTER AND CONFORM MORE OBVIOUSLY AND PERFECTLY TO THE SYSTEM ON WHICH THE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT IS CONSTRUCTED, TO AMEND SECTION 3 OF THE EXISTING LAW ESTABLISHING THIS DEPARTMENT BY AUTHORIZING THEM TO APPOINT AND PREScribe THE DUTIES AND PAY THE FEES OF THE STATE GEOLOGIST IN THE SAME MANNER AS IS PROVIDED IN THE CASE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE?

OTHERWISE THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE WOULD BE COMPelled TO APPROPRIATE $5,000 PER ANNUM OUT OF THEIR UNCONSTRAINED REVENUES, WHICH MIGHT NOT EVEN AMOUNT TO THIS SUM. OBVIOUSLY IF THE LEGISLATURE PROPOSED TO PREScribe THE DUTIES OF

THE STATE GEOLOGIST, AND TO CLAIM THE APPOINTMENT OF THIS OFFICE, THEY SHOULD ALSO FURNISH, AS HERETOFORE, THE FUNDS FOR THAT PURPOSE.

IF THE BILL AS PASSED BY THE SENATE SHOULD BECOME A LAW, A VERY POSSIBLE RESULT MAY BE THE DESTRUCTION OF BOTH DEPARTMENTS.

MISSCELLANEOUS.

TARBORO, N. C., 1878.

DR. H. R. STEVENS.

DEAR SIR,—I feel very grateful for what your valuable medicine, Vegetine, has done for my son; also, to let you know that Vegetine is the best medicine I ever used. My son was ill with measles in 1873, which left him with high joint disease. My son suffered a great deal from this disease, and was unable to eat or drink but nothing but broths. The doctors did not help him a particle, he could not lift his foot from the floor, he could not move his head, and was unable to sleep. He was sent to the "Louisville Courier-Journal," that Vegetine was a great blood purifier and medicine, and that it would be of great benefit. He kept on with the medicine gradually gaining. He has taken it for two years now, and is now in full strength, and is able to eat and drink and eat hearty. This doctor did not help him a particle, he could not move his head, and was unable to sleep. He was sent to the "Louisville Courier-Journal," that Vegetine was a great blood purifier and medicine, and that it would be of great benefit. He kept on with the medicine gradually gaining. His pictures are exposed to public view And a variety of cord to suspend them too,

His looking glasses and toilet cases Will help adorn your forms and faces; Picture frames and mouldings too

In great variety, black, brown and blue.

His window cornices and lambrequins fine,

will make your rooms and parlor shine.

Perforated mottos, and white holly baskets.

And every other sort of stuff,

Or which he hopes to have enough.

So now he bids you all adieu And wishes a happy new year too.

And not forget C. C. Clawson,

LIVER PILLS

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYS-URIA AND SICK HEADACHE

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

DISEASE in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in some cases are constipated, sometimes alternating with lax, the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

Dr. C. McLane's LIVER PILLS, in CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of very satisfactory results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to have a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as simple purgative, they are unequalled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated. Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. MCCLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLane's LIVER PILLS bear the signature of C. McLane and Fleming Bros. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. McLane's LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.
